

21 NCAC 14C .0804 INTERVENTION

Discretionary intervention will be allowed when:

- (1) The information the petitioner desires to present is relevant and not repetitious or merely cumulative; and
- (2) The petitioner would lend added facts to arguments of the parties.

*History Note: Authority G.S. 150B-38(f);
Eff. February 1, 1976;
Pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.3A, rule is necessary without substantive public interest Eff. January 13, 2015;
Readopted Eff. April 1, 2026.*