

21 NCAC 14D .0306 STATEMENT OF REASONS

An objection to a subpoena shall include a complete statement of reasons why the subpoena should be quashed. These reasons may include lack of relevancy of the evidence requested, lack of particularity in the description of the evidence sought, or any other legal reason for declaring the subpoena invalid, such as that the evidence is privileged or that appearance or production would be so disruptive as to be unreasonable in light of the significance of the evidence sought or would produce some other undue hardship to the party.
