

SUBPOENAS

(b) The party shall serve the subpoena along with the fees and expenses required by G.S. 150B-39(c).

(d) G.S. 150B-39(c) governs the recipients' duties in responding to subpoenas. A party to the case or person subject to the subpoena may object to a subpoena by filing a motion to quash. The movant shall file and serve the motion to quash within 10 days of service of the subpoena or seven days before the contested case hearing, whichever is sooner. The Board shall hear and rule on objections as provided in G.S. 150B-39(c).
