25 NCAC 01K .0105 CENTERS OF RESPONSIBILITY

(a) Adequate training and development of state employees shall be accomplished through the combined efforts of employees, supervisors on the job, departmental management, and the Office of State Human Resources in cooperation with the state's institutions of higher education.

(b) Human resource development programs shall recognize the following roles:

- (1) Employees. State employees at all levels ultimately retain an obligation to advance their own careers by pursuing appropriate opportunities for development and education.
- (2) Managers and Supervisors. Managers and supervisors have the initial responsibility for ensuring access to job-related training and development for their employees. In fulfilling this responsibility, managers and supervisors shall identify the individual training needs of their employees and work with employees to prepare and effect plans for their development.
- (3) State Agencies. State agencies are responsible for planning, budgeting, implementing and evaluating training for employees consistent with organizational needs and state policy. In addition, each agency shall work closely with other agencies and the Office of State Human Resources to promote the use of interagency training programs and resources wherever possible.
- (4) Office of State Human Resources. The Office of State Human Resources shall be responsible for statewide planning, coordination and review of human resource development programs, as well as for direct delivery of some specified interagency training

- (5) State Universities, the Community College System, and Public Instruction. The Office of State Human Resources and state agencies are responsible for utilizing the state's universities, Community College System, and public instruction to the fullest degree possible in securing professional, management, and vocational education to meet their human resource development needs.

Pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.3A, rule is necessary without substantive public interest Eff. October 4, 2016.*

25 NCAC 01K .0402 DETERMINATION OF NEED FOR TRAINING

Before utilizing non-state sources for training and development activities, an agency must determine that:

- (1) agency employees currently lack the requisite competencies to meet the specified performance need.
- (2) education and training is not available within North Carolina state government to meet the agency's need(s);
Education and training is not available when:
 - (a) existing programs in state government will not meet the need;
 - (b) new programs cannot be cost-effectively established to meet the need;
 - (c) inquiry has failed to disclose available, cost-effective programs in other state agencies, the Office of State Human Resources, public education, higher education institutions, or elsewhere in state government.

*History Note: Authority G.S. 126-4;
Eff. February 1, 1976;*

Amended Eff. March 1, 2005; January 1, 1979;

Pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.3A, rule is necessary without substantive public interest Eff. October 4, 2016.

25 NCAC 01K .0403 SELECTION OF NON-GOVERNMENT SOURCES

When there is a choice between outside training sources, the agency shall consider the following factors:

- (1) demonstrated effectiveness in similar situations in delivering the particular training;
- (2) accessibility of the training source due to geographic proximity and technological capability;
- (3) availability of training at the particular time or place it is needed;
- (4) comparative cost as determined by the Division of Purchase and Contract Rules;
- (5) practicality of necessary administrative arrangements;
- (6) significance of the training source's accreditation; and
- (7) unique advantages that might result from arrangements with one of several equally acceptable available source.

History Note: Authority G.S. 126-4;

Eff. February 1, 1976;

Amended Eff. March 1, 2005; January 1, 1979;

Pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.3A, rule is necessary without substantive public interest Eff. October 4, 2016.

25 NCAC 01K .0404 PROCEDURE FOR APPROVAL OF NON-STATE SOURCES

Consistent with 01 NCAC 05B .0301, should any state agency have a human resource development need that cannot be met by resources within state government, a justification memorandum from the purchasing agency to the State Purchase and Contract must document:

- (1) an explanation of how the achievement of the identified human resource development objectives contribute to the goals, and
- (2) that no state government institution or agency can cost-effectively meet the educational or training need in a timely manner. This memo shall include a list of the agencies contacted and the responses of each agency.

History Note: Authority G.S. 126-4; 143-64.20; 143-64.24;

Eff. February 1, 1976;
